

8:40 Meeting - Friday, 28 September 1973

1. Telephone Operators: As a result of the ad for telephone operators which appeared in the Washington Post on 23 September 1973, 24 people have called. Nine appointments have been arranged and four have had interviews, all of whom seemed interested and qualified. Appointments have been arranged for them to talk with the Chief Operator.

✓ 2. Classified Bulletin Board: The "classified" bulletin board in the 1J corridor is ready for use as soon as the DD/M&S formally approves the concept.